Lunch at DDU

The Day of Deeper Understanding on May 10th will begin with lunch. Attendees are asked to bring food to share and plan to enjoy fellowship at 1 p.m.

Al Bunyard will be the featured speaker at the meeting. Please encourage those fresh babe chicks to come get reenergized.

Several musicians have offered to lead the songs and create a joyful noise to the Lord.

The DDU is at St. David's, Chesterfield from 1 until 4 p.m.

Cursillista Database

A database of all DOSVACursillistas is being developed by Charlie Pfeifer. This data base could be used by rectors to fill teams and by others to find phone numbers or addresses.

Charlie requests former coordinators and/or rectors send electronic team lists to him. His email is: Pfeifercg@cox.net

Once he receives these he will build a very handy data base which will take the place of the boxes of cards the rectors currently use.

Cursillo Shed Wish List

The Cursillo Shed, full of all the necessities for running a smooth weekend, is in need of a few things. Anyone wishing to help with these needs should contact someone on the Secretariat or David Downs, "The Shed Head".

downsda@verizon.net

Some of the things on the wish list include:

- Easels with a dry erase board (2)
- Decorated bags (paper) for the team members, to show the love (the candidates get those nice cloth ones)
- New torches
- Repair or replace the crucifer cross

From time to time items needed will be listed here. People seem to enjoy donating to Cursillo when there is a need so here is the opportunity.

Remember monetary donations are always welcome as well. Most weekends do not pay for themselves, so donations help to keep the cost of the weekend at a reasonable level.

Piety, First leg of tripod

Piety is our relationship with God. Being a Christian, not merely doing Christian things to appear Christian describes piety. It is life in Christ.

The direction of one's whole life to God is piety in action. The three elements of piety are knowing,, wanting, and doing. Knowing what one is doing, wanting the emotional drive to spur one to action, and doing that which will convert ones plans into reality.

Piety is the state of being Christian. Acts of piety are those things done to nourish Christian life. Authentic piety is only complete when it is shared with others freely.
